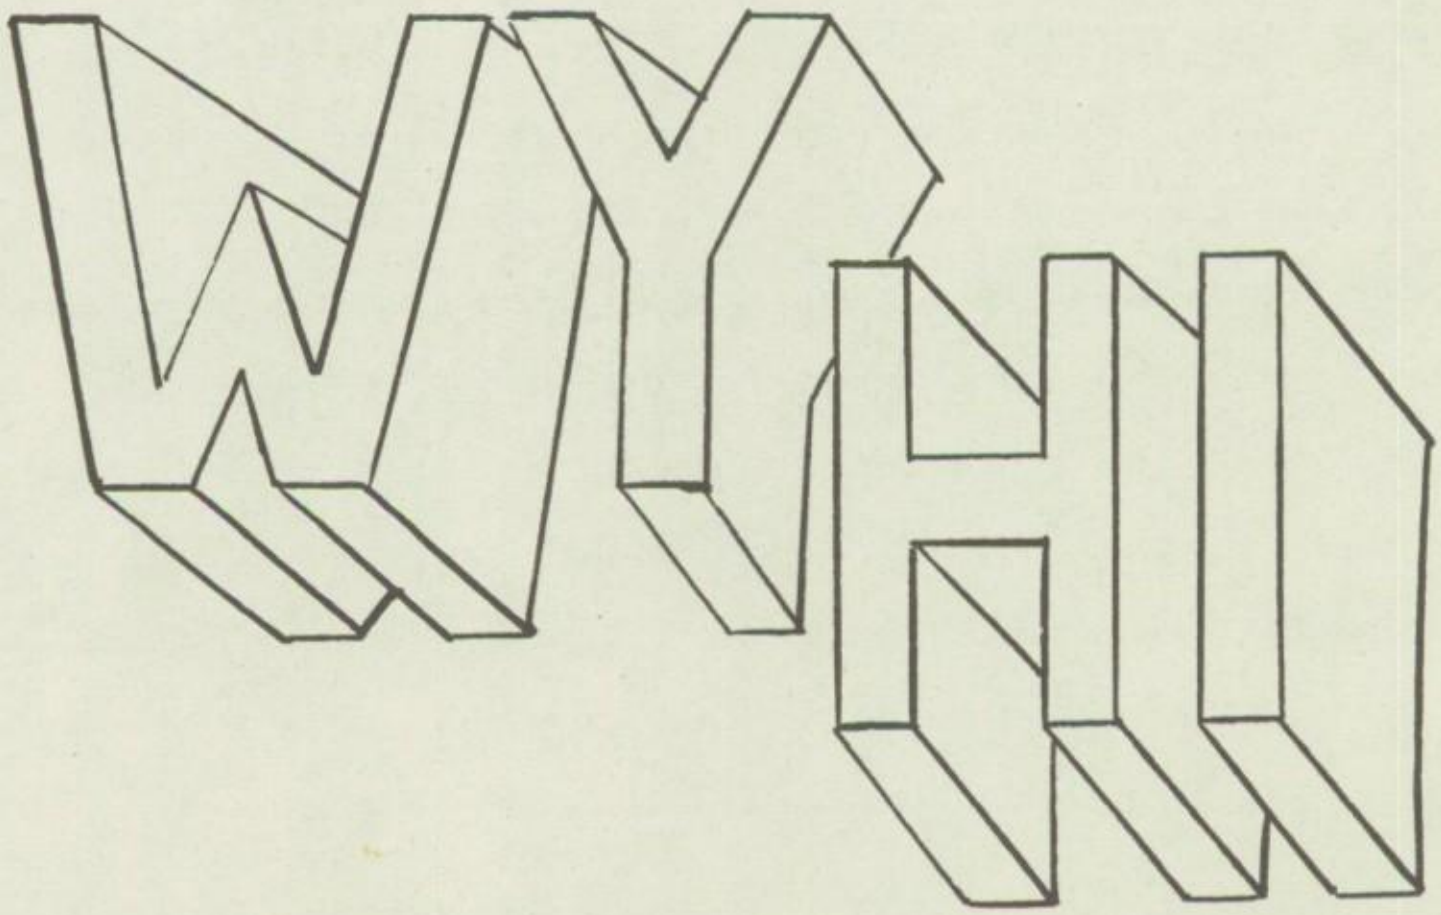
THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1952 PRESENTS



THEODORE ROOSEVELT HIGH SCHOOL
WYANDOTTE, MICHIGAN

Dedication

To our class sponsors, in whose very title the word "responsibility" is wherent, we dedicate this book. With their help and inspiration in the years just behind us, we have perhaps come nearer to a realization of the responsibilities of senior members of our school society and, eventually, of the democratic society, in which we are soon to find ourselves.

This process of growing up is so closely intertwined with the valuable and pleasant experiences we've shared as a class at Roosevelt. As juniors, true to tradition, we lacked direction of purpose, co-operation and sense of responsibility needed for success in our early undertakings. As seniors, though many of us divided time between jobs and school, we carried through class responsibilities with more purpose. The adults whose guidance helped us the most in these particular phases of growing up were our homeroom teachers and sponsors. Their willingness to go beyond the usual demands on the high school teacher are seldom realized by students. They receive no overtime pay for countless ninth and tenth hour committee meetings or evening dances they attended. From those first "in-the-red" Junior dances to the "Alice-in-Wonderland" Senior Prom, their effort and enthusiasm never seemed to wane.

If, as Mr. Webster says, a sponsor is "one who binds himself to answer for another's default or who assumes responsibility for some other person or thing", we can look back apologetically and see the countless "defaults" and "responsibilities" our sponsors have shouldered for us: profitless dances, prom decorating, discouraged and "idealless" committees, hairraising Spook House plans, and Commencement rehearsals.

The accomplishment of becoming responsible citizens in a democracy is not learned altogether in books. In our class activities with our sponsors as outside-of-the-classroom teachers, many and valuable have been the lessons in citizenship we have learned. With a sincere and most thankful farewell, we salute our class sponsors.

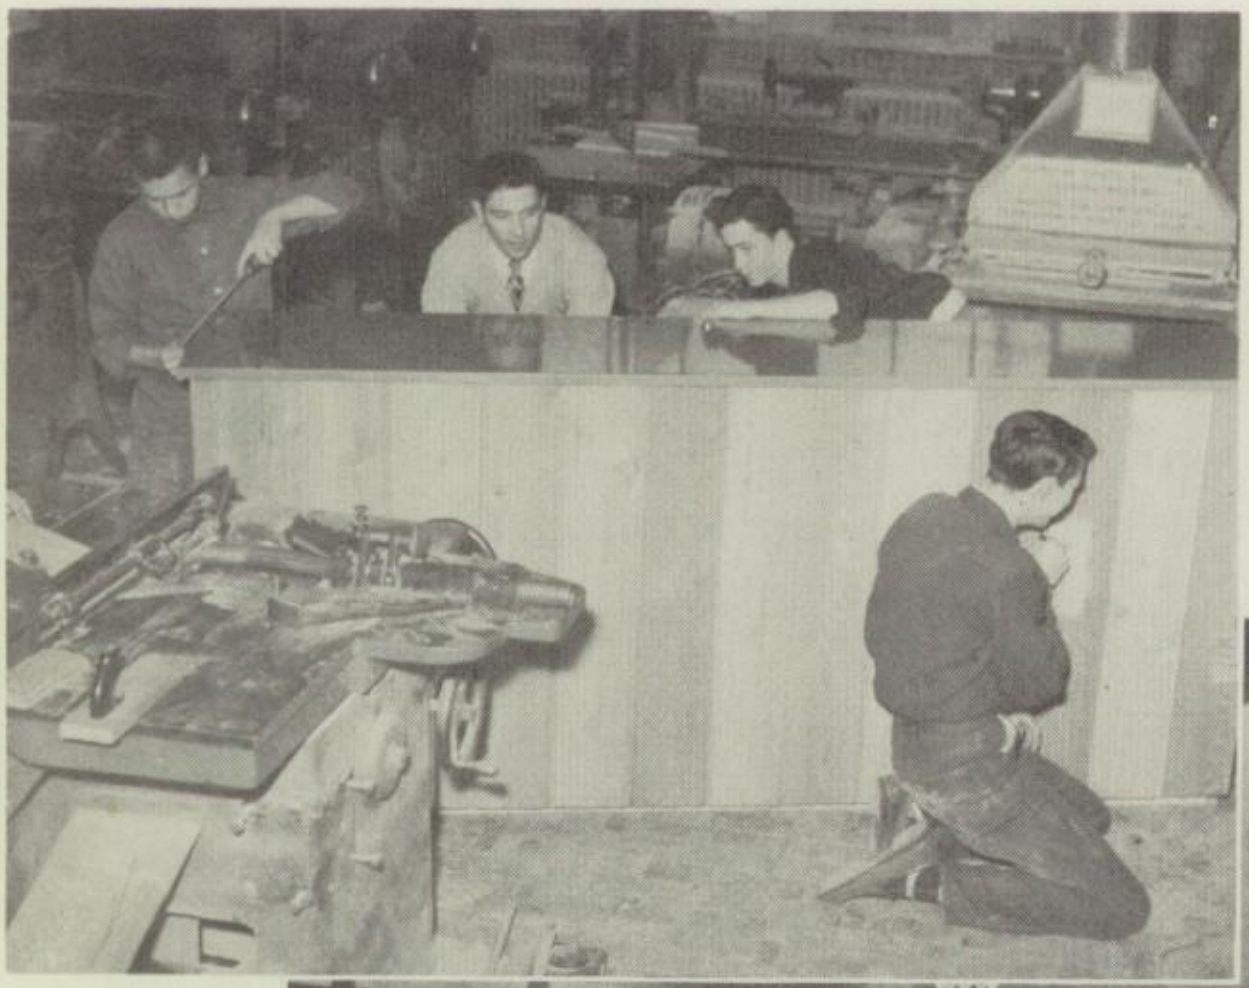
We Work,



We Play,

We Plan

We Work,

We Play,

We Plan

If all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, all play and no work should make Jack a particularly sharp youth.

Such does not hold true, however. For success, there must be a proper mixture of the ingredients of work and play and then heated with the fires of planning.

Youth feels lost in a quagmire of uncertainty, yes, even of despondency, yet never has there been such an opportunity for making this world a haven for harmonious and happy living. To many a teenager the future appears to be one of hopeless warfare and mental strife without hopes for escape. That attitude is defeatest and cannot produce a future to look forward to with any degree of desire.

Hope for the future lies in avoidance of the mistakes of the past. The highway of future progress must be built by the youth of today. To serve the best purpose, the highway must lead through the hamlets of responsibility, efficiency, integrity, dependability, courtesy, economy, and good citizenship if it is to connect the great terminals of freedom, peace, prosperity, and happiness.

American youths of past generations have also been faced with seemingly insurmountable problems. Present greatness of this nation was not gained through a defeatest attitude, but with a rolling up of the sleeves and attacking the problems at hand.

This is no time to look at the future through dark colored glasses, for the America- yes, the world - of the future is on the drafting board of youth.

Never has opportunity been spelled with larger letters. Science, medicine, music, art, literature, law, engineering, transportation, communication, government and the humanities offer fertile and extensive fields for cultivation by those with ambition, courage, skill and determination.

In the face of such opportunity there are false prophets who hold out the false panacea of security - a security without planning on the part of the individual and without too much work. There is no such thing as true security. No mortal mind is great enough to vision the future.

Youth of today is admonished not to exchange freedom, independence and opportunity for the "gold brick" so glowingly but dishonestly described as security.

The best security and the only honest kind comes when youth grasps the opportunities offered and cultivates the fertile fields with the implements that have brought greatness to this nation. It comes when youth fights for its rights, yet does not shun its responsibilities.

Work, Play, Plan. This triumvirate spells the future greatness of America and of the world.

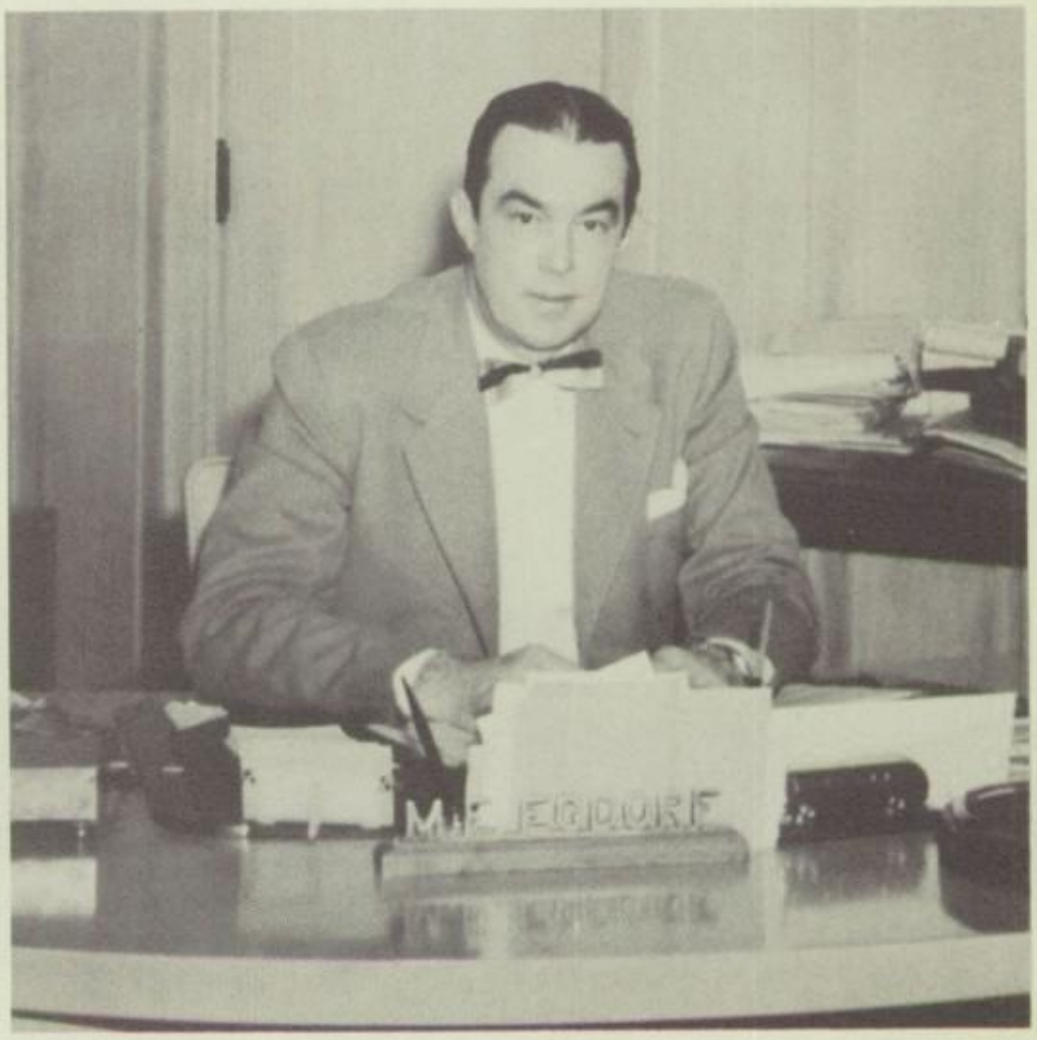
Thanks To The School Board

We of the Senior Class wish to express our appreciation to the School Board for the many things they have done for us during our four years in Roosevelt High. We have found them to be willing listeners to our problems and suggestions. They have done every thing under their power to make our school a better one. We thank you heartily.

Administration

Mr. Egdorf--Although he has been here only two years, students have found him always sympathetic with their problems. And Freshmen are not the only ones who have discovered that he is a man to "look up to". We will all miss him and wish him luck, but the Seniors can never forget the sincere smile with which he handed out their diplomas.



M. F. EGDORF
Superintendent

Mr. Whitney--Because when he goes to bat for the students, it is usually behind the scenes, most of us will remember only his patient consideration and friendly manner in the halls.

C. J. WHITNEY
Principal

Dean of Girls--MISS RUIE PINNEY
This little lady with the big smile has quite a job to handle. She must simultaneously contend with absentee excuses, troubles, and telephones.

Assistant principal--O. G. HENNEY
He can successfully fill the role of "good guy" or "tough guy". It all depends on you!

Research--E. I. MICHELSON
He also plans-in his research activities will the schools of the future in Wyandotte be presented.

January Stars

Robert Galacz Joan Jagodzinski Verna Church Mr. Whitney, Principal

Valedictorian

Leading the 79 January graduates across the stage was Verna Church who maintained a 4.00 average during her four years of high school. Verna, who is the second member of her family to graduate as Valedictorian, found plenty of time for extra-cirricular activities. In between "A's" she won letters for glee club, debating and discussion, achieved Tri-Alpha, and was elected to National Honor Society. Verna was also active on J Hop and Homecoming Dance committees. She was a member of the Ski Club as well as playing a lead role in the Junior play.

Salutatorian

Further proof of the theory that top ranking students easily manage outside fun and activities is Robert Galacz. Bob was a member of Hi-Y, National Honor Society and Tri-Alpha. He was also cast in Junior play and served on Senior play, Senior dance, color and flower committees. Bob's scholastic record for the past four years was 3.91.

Third High

Third in the parade of top January graduates is Joan Jagodzinski, who finished with an average of 3.79. She was elected president of the Co-op Class and was a member of G.A.A. and Tri-Alpha. Joan also served as co-chairman of the Junior dance and of the ticket committee for the Junior play.

Class History

Four years and several weeks ago, a freshman class was brought forth upon this campus, conceived in energy and dedicated to the proposition that they should graduate on the 24th of January, 1952.

Together with the other senior section they produced the annual Junior dance "Cranberry Ball"; the Junior play, "No Place to Park"; the J-Hop, "South Pacific", the Senior play, "Ten Little Indians", the Senior dance, "Christmas Cabaret" and the Senior prom, "Alice in Wonderland." Along with these terrific achievements go the contributions this class offered in the County Fair and other intraschool activities.

This class was outstanding in that they chose girls to head their class in both the Junior and Senior years. Sally Vasher was Junior president and helping her were Mitzi Berarov, vice-president; Eunice Smith, secretary and Janet Berry, treasurer.

Leading the class down the aisle on Commencement night were Verna Church, valedictorian; Robert Galacz, salutatorian, and Joan Jagodzinski, third high. They were followed by class officers-Eunice Smith, president; Shirley Webb, vice-president; Janet Berry, secretary, and Horace Cameron, treasurer. Class colors were navy and powder blue and the flower was Talisman rose. Their motto was "View Nothing as an End, but as a Horizon."

Now we are engaged in a conflict between Communism and Democracy, testing whether that philosophy or any philosophy so conceived and dedicated can long endure. After graduation many were met with the patriotic duty of serving our country. We are willing to give our lives so that this nation will continue to live and be strong. We are willing to sacrifice part of our youth so that others will be able to have a free education.

We shall do our best to preserve the democracy that so many have died for. To this end, let our class be leaders in restraining fanatic agitaters who want to rule our land and minds. Let our government be truly one, "of the people, by the people and for the people." - Nancy Gee

Three Honor Grads

The top honor graduates for June 1952 were all girls. They are Julie Flynn, taking top honors, Marilyn Julien, second, and Barbara Haynes, third.

Marilyn also has found time during her high school life to participate in various outside activities. She was a member of Tri Alpha, a majorette, served as library assistant and in the principal's office. She also took part in the Junior Play.

Julie was a member of Tri Alpha, National Honor Society, A Cappella Choir (letter winner), R.S.U., glee club and chorus. She also served on various class and school committees.

Music has been one of the major talents of the number three student. She has been a member of the cadet and senior orchestras and has won a letter in that activity. She was a captain of one of the salesman teams for the annual and served as secretary of the junior class. She also is a member of Tri Alpha and National Honor Society.

Class History

Hearts and skirts alike were in a swirl when as Juniors we gave our first dance, "Cupid's Capers." We had hardly recovered from the excitement of that dance when it was time to prepare for the class play. It was an all-star cast that presented, "No Place to Park" and the auditorium was so packed that there was hardly any place to park.

To bring out the lighter side of Thanksgiving, we sponsored the Cranberry Ball. Never will we forget the wonderful decorations of the J-Hop with its theme of South Pacific and with hula girls and other gay ideas of an enchanted island, the dance was really something to rave about.

Nancy Gee was crowned queen of the Homecoming Dance and with her two attendants, Nancy Barkey and Betty Lou Lundsted, made a wonderful court. Crowning of the queen was the highlight of a wonderful dance and a wonderful football season.

The Christmas Cabaret was the name of the Christmas dance of the class as Seniors and the decorations made the gymnasium look as though the Stork Club had come to Wyandotte. The idea of the cabaret was a new one and most successful it was.

No Senior will ever forget the Prom. "Alice Blue Gown" was almost shoved out of the limelight by the lovelies who attended. The theme of "Alice in Wonderland" was carried out in the decorations and a wonderland it was.

Thrills, chills and laughter were inspired by the excellent production of "Ten Little Indians" the Senior play, in which future Barrymores looked out from the footlights.

As time drew nearer for our graduation, we took a look at the more serious side of our activities and after much debate decided on our motto, "He Who Looks Ahead, Seldom Falls Behind." Our colors are orchid and white and white rose is the flower.

Now, putting the pen in its final resting place, we can all look back and honestly say, "It was a terrific four years." Carol Krause

DAVE SCHENDEL

In Memoriam

He played the game courageously to the final whistle!

Death of Dave Schendel shortly after the opening of the football season of September, 1950, came as a distinct shock to his teammates, the student body, faculty and all others who had been influenced in any way by his zest of living.

As a football player, the youth was a hard blocker, a good team gridder and a clean athlete, anxious to win, only if it could be done honestly. The lessons he learned on the gridiron were accepted with the greatest sincerity.

In the classroom Dave was friendly and always ready to help those in need; he was studious and dependable and a desirable addition to any of the school's functions. His ability to see the amusing side of a situation made him popular with students and teachers alike. He was too fine a character ever to give any trouble in the classroom or at home.

His death made a great void in the family circle which can never be entirely healed, for his conduct was always such that he never gave a moment's worry to his parents.

Taken ill while on the football trip to Lansing Sexton, the youth did not complain but attempted to be the same happy personality. Little did his teammates realize how ill he was and that he had played his last game until that contest in which the Great Referee blew the final whistle only a few days later.

The year 1953 will be a big one at Roosevelt if the activities of the present Junior class are any indication.

With a football star to guide them the class scored several touchdowns with dances, class play and other activities.

"They'll hear from us," appears to be the motto of the entire class and instead of running interference for the graduating class, the 1953ers are seizing the ball on every opportunity and running for large gains.

JUNIOR PLAY

Many of us would love to travel abroad, but minor things like money, etc. have kept us home. Fortunately, the Juniors made it possible for everyone to visit the Continent--via their class play,"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" on the nights of March 13, 14, and 16.

The zany adventures of young Cornelia Otis Skinner (Joan Blizman) and Emily (Jean Crutcher) en route to, and actually in Paris kept the audience in stitches. Bed bugs and dangling money bags were only two of the things Emily and Cornelia had to contend with. Then romance came "roaring out of the Twenties" when the girls met two young doctors (Roger Homiester and Ed Downing) on ship board. Suddenly troubles began popping up and the picture looked bad for the girls. But as usual, youth triumphed, and everyone left with their hearts feeling young and gay.

The play was directed by Charles Burkett, who was assisted by student directors James Burke and Joan Robinson. Supporting players were, Franz Laubert, Kay Griffith, Shirley Ohliger, Jerry Bush, David Dean, Dick Lozon, Gloretta DeWeise, Gloria Brochue, Leslie Thibideau, Shirley Wilson, Tom Beaudrie and Ann Wild.

Roosevelt has had a National Honor Society chapter since 1926, when it was founded under the directorship of Miss Bess McClintic. At the time Miss McClintic retired, several years ago, Miss Alice Johnson became sponsor of the group and is in that capacity at the present time.

It is composed of students selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Elections, by a committee of teachers, are held each semester and no more than 5% of the 11A class, 10% of the 12B, or 15% of the 12A may be chosen.

The Roosevelt Student Union is the school governmental body by, for and of the students. New representatives are elected to the Union from English classes each semester. The weekly meetings are spent discussing and acting upon school problems and activities.

The representatives are divided into five committees, each of which works on a project for the benefit of the student body.

Sally Vasher, president; Pat Duncan, vice-president; Yvonne Buskard, corresponding secretary, Joanne Sheets, recording secretary; and Bill Rockerhousen, treasurer, held office during the fall semester.

Their successors for the spring term were George Richardson, president; Vern Easterling, vice-president; Criss Knaggs, corresponding secretary; Joyce Culp, recording secretary, and Margaret Johns, treasurer.

Faculty advisers Robert Rattray and Maynard Alfstad have seen the R.S.U. grow from small beginnings to its present importance.

WORLD AS A COMMUNITY CLASS

"It's a small world." It really is, too--especially if you travel, and that's just what the World As a Community Class does. One of the primary purposes of this group is to prove to today's youth that it is a small world.

This year the class traveled to Duluth, Minnesota. The exchange was completed when 24 Duluth students spent five days actually living with their Wyandotte exchange partners.

Before their trip the W.A.A.C's made an extensive study of the geography, religion, history, nationalities, and so on of this area. This made it possible for the W.A.A.C.'s to show their Duluth friends a good time educationally as well as socially.

Money making projects are also an important part of the W.A.A.C. routine. Profits from such activities as bake and rummage sales, the County Fair, an assembly program, and dances finance the trip to Minnesota and entertain the guests from Duluth.

This was the seventh exchange program to have been completed since the class was founded in 1946. It began as a co-operative venture by the Wyandotte Public Schools and the American Red Cross. Mrs. Bernice Hardwicke is the present sponsor.

Attending classes in the middle of a snow bank was the never-to-be-forgotten experience of 35 Roosevelt High School Ski Club members who spent a week at Boyne Mountain. It was not all play, as the conscientous students took along their books and kept up with their lessons.

During the time spent on skis the students just "slid" along and discovered more muscles than they ever knew they had. And these muscles seemed to take turns getting sore about something or other.

The winter school was a novelty in education and one which will become more and more desirable.

IT'S NEWS -- WY-NEWS

The Wy-News continues to have top honors among the high school publications of the nation. Continuously since the first semester of the school year 1934-44 the Wy-News has won All American rating, probably the best record of any high school.

During the first semester, two boys took over the job of editor-in-chief. They were Ralph Shuck and Tom Sparrow. For the second semester Mary Ann Shonk and Peter Luley became the hard-boiled co-editors and drove the other members of the staff to observe deadlines.

Every effort is made to have attractive pages and to blanket the school with its news coverage. As do all good newspapers, gossip is frowned upon.

Exchanges are made with more than 100 newspapers in other high schools and that these high school staffs study the Wy-News is shown by the many innovations introduced in Wyandotte which have been copied by other schools.

Under the direction of James E. Ostrum, Adviser, the newspaper has had an outstanding record. "Continue the good work" is the cry of the entire school to the Wy-News and its staffs-present and future.

The Golden Bears did an excellent job on the football gridiron during the past season by overpowering all League opponents and dropping only the final game of the season against Grand Rapids Union.

There was a change in coaching caused by the retirement of John Middlesworth, one of the best high school coaches in the business. Jerry Henderson, who had turned in such a remarkable job in coaching Freshmen football was pressed into service and brought the team along to a championship.

In the opening game Ecorse was downed 22-7 although the Raiders came up with a fast outfit. The next Friday night the Polar Bears of Highland Park, a well-coached outfit, were snared by Wyandotte 19-12.

Royal Oak was the third victim, also in a night game, 20-13 in one of the thrillers of the season. The next victory for Wyandotte was over Grosse Pointe 14-8 in a rough and tough pigskin scramble.

Monroe was the visitor for Wyandotte's Homecoming and went back to the River Raisin city weeping copious tears because of a 42-6 loss. This victory made the Homecoming a real pleasure for Roosevelt. Lincoln Park, a non-league team, was next to feel the claws of the Bears 21-7.

The championship game was played at Fordson in weather that reminded one of the Artic Circle and the Bears came home with a close 12-6 victory, which meant the title.

Although the Grand Rapids game was postponed because of weather, the Bears played hard but lost 33-28 in an upset for the only mar on an otherwise perfect season. But the Border cities League title had been won.

WYANDOTTE 44 JACKSON 58
The game was played at Yost Field House in Ann Arbor.

The Wyandotte cagers, coached by Dick Hoffeins, doubled their win column this year.

The loss of two seasoned players at the end of the first semester was a blow to their hopes but they had plenty of hustle and every game a new face would come into the lineup.

Coach Hoffeins began building last season, trying to keep a few sophomores on the squad to get some experience, and plans on doubling the win column again next year.

Coach Jerry Henderson doffed his football togs and was forced to don swimming trunks without a pause and hardly a chance to draw a long breath.

Wyandotte was handicapped in league competition in many ways, but despite these handicaps was able to win both meets against Monroe for its only two wins of the season. The Bears were especially strong in diving because of the ability of George Sanger. They were weak in secondary strength.

Promising sophomores and junior strength should give Wyandotte a better season next year.

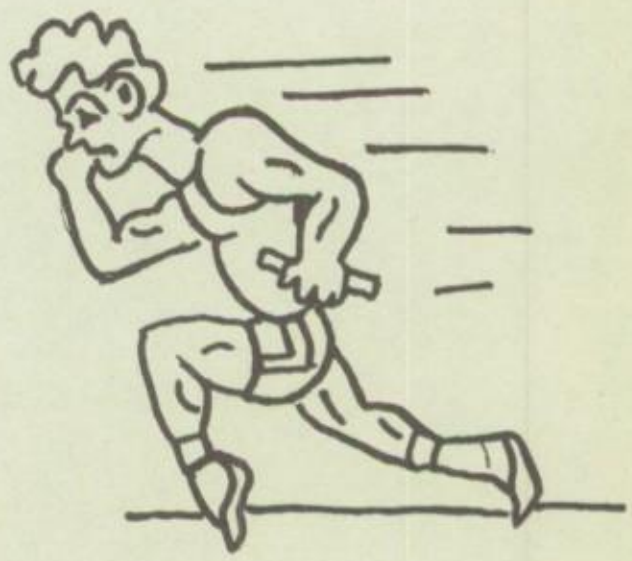
Coaches Milton Powell and O. G. Henney look forward to being very strong in the hurdles and the sprints with several of last year's outstanding lettermen returning. Handicapped by graduation and ineligability the distance races and field events won't be as strong as in previous years unless some of the less experienced boys start turning in faster time. The relay team figures to be quite strong, losing only one runner from last year's squad, but with several candidates ready to step in their places.

The spring track meets are as follows:
April 24 there Fordson
April 29 there Grosse Pointe
May 2 here Royal Oak
May 6 here Highland Park
May 9 there Monroe



River Rouge Invitationals April 5 at Ann Arbor
Regionals May 17 at Monroe

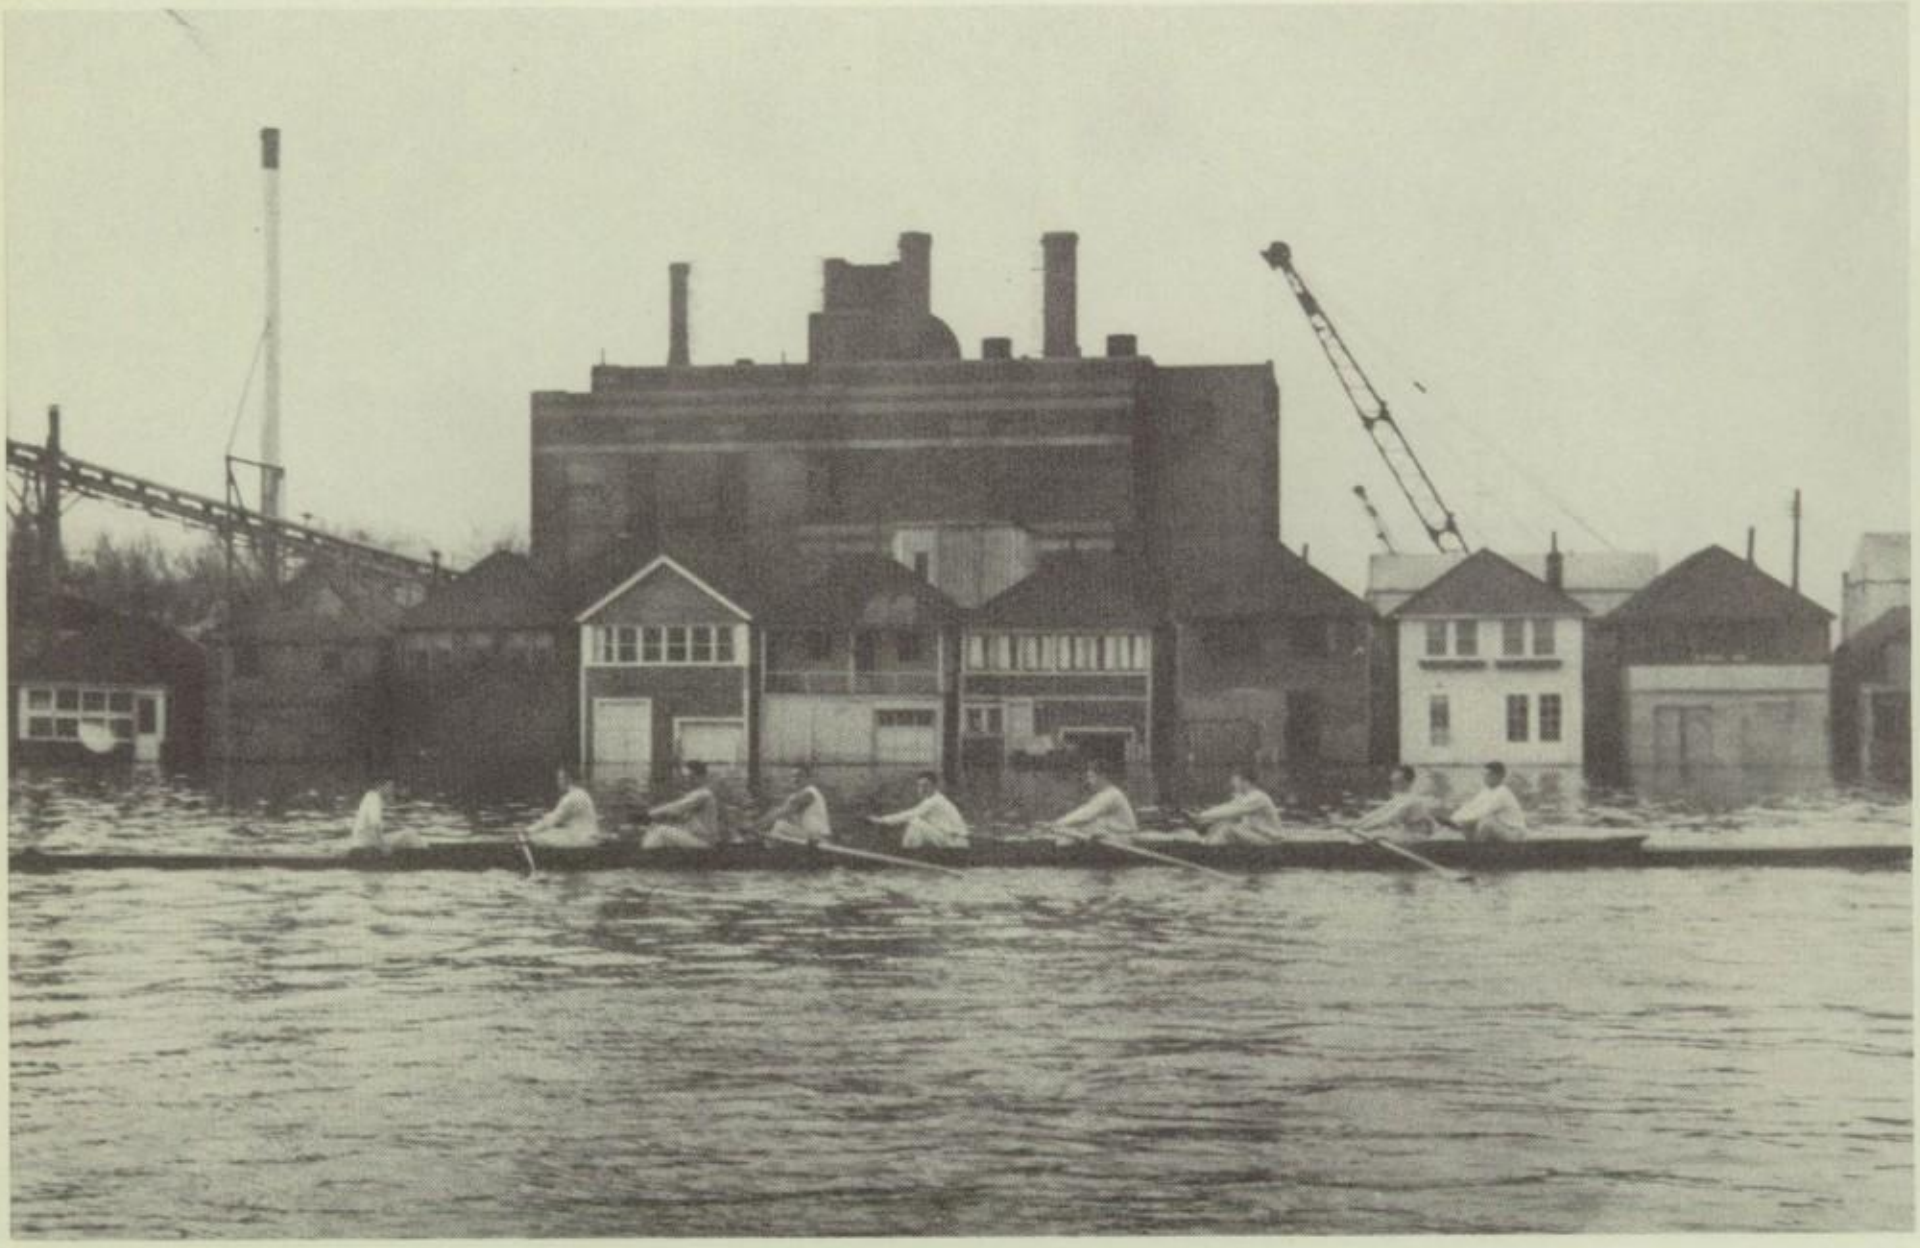
Rowing



Roosevelt High School is one of but a few high schools in the nation in which rowing is a competitive sport. Over the years Wyandotte has had a marvelous record in rowing.

Last year's crews, under coaching of "Cully" Bourassa had a good record. The Varsity Junior Eight won at Detroit, Midland and Culver, Indiana in scheduled meets and lost to Ecorse. Greatest victory was the Midwest Schoolboy Rowing Championship at Detroit.

This year, interest in rowing is at the highest in history and it is anticipated that at least four eight-oared crews will go through the grueling season and win new honors for Roosevelt High.

Because of the late Spring, the makeup of the various crews could not be determined because the shells were not launched until a few days before this book went to press.

Baseball

BOTTOM ROW: Basil Moots, Glenn Girardin, Gary Leigh, Bob McCandless, Dick Papp, Alex Imlay, Frank Nauyokas, Neil Harden.
TOP ROW: Larry Thomas (coach), Metch Zajchowski, Danny Tucker, Tom Erwin, Ralph Peterson, Doug Bruce, Harvey Lehmann, Joe Jelsomeno, Sherwood Holland.

Coach Larry Thomas will be out to build up the baseball team this spring in hope of bringing Wyandotte another championship team.

After having poor baseball weather last spring lets hope for some good co-operation from old man weather this year.

The schedule of the spring games is as follows:

April	15	Here	Lincoln Park
	22	There	Grosse Pointe
	25	Here	Royal Oak
	29	Here	Monroe
May	2	There	Highland Park
	6	Here	Fordson
	7	Here	Ford Trade
	9	Here	Grosse Pointe
	13	There	Royal Oak
	16	There	Monroe
	20	Here	Highland Park
	23	There	Fordson
	27	There	Ford Trade
	28	There	Lincoln Park

Tennis

Tennis is coming into its own at Roosevelt High and this year the Bear netters will mark another niche in the records of athletic teams.

For many years Grosse Pointe was the champion when it came to tennis play in the Border Cities League, with Monroe having a look in on occasion. Last year Wyandotte made these two cities move over and give it parking space.

Although it was impossible to tell how the season would work out at the time this book went to the publishers, Coach U.S. Beach had his "racketeers" working hard in preparation for the full schedule as given below. The glint of championship is in the eyes of the Roosevelt team. The spring schedule is as follows:

April	22	There Royal Oak
	24	Here Monroe
	29	There Highland Park
May	2	There Grosse Pointe
	6	Here Fordson
	7	Here Highland Park
	16	There Fordson
	20	Here Grosse Pointe
	21	Here Royal Oak
June	4	Cranbrook there

May 23 and 24 Regionals
State finals June 6 and 7

"TEN LITTLE

SENIOR PLAY

INDIANS''

Breaking what seems to be almost a tradition, the Senior play this year ran to melodrama rather than the usual light comedy.

"Ten Little Indians" proved to be a spine-chilling success as it played to large audiences November 16 and 17. The setting was laid on a foggy island off the coast of England in the guest filled country home of a mysterious absent Mr. Owen. There, several murders took place, strangely following the pattern of the ancient rhyme of the "Ten Little Indians". This increasingly sinister motto hung framed over the mantel.

Drama coach, Charles Burkett ably directed the star-studded cast which included such notables as Joanne Courtney (Vera Claythorne), George Richardson (Phillip Lombard),and Kenneth Recore (Sir Lawrence Wargrave).

Supporting roles were portrayed by Harland Boik (Rogers), Judy Martin (Mrs. Rogers), Henry Sieloff (Fred Narracott), Don McIntosh (Anthony Marston), Walt Wegst (William Blore), Jack Mitchell (General MacKenzie), Richard Roberts (Dr. Armstrong), and Margaret Johns as (Emily Brent).

Home Coming Dance

The Homecoming Dance annually sponsored by the Senior Class, was held October 20, 1951, after being victorious in the afternoon football game with Monroe. The dance was held in the gym in the evening. Nancy Gee was crowned Queen by football captains Noel Bufe and Walter Le Clair. Attending Nancy were Nancy Barkey and Betty Lou Lundstedt. The Queen received the bouquet of large yellow mums set off with a blue ribbon. In the evening at the dance all three of the girls wore white mum corsages.

Here and there

"Step right up and try your luck at the Basketball Toss!" "Get your candied apples here!" "This way to the hor-r-r-r-ible Haunted House!"

The raucous calling of the barkers and the jumbled voices of the crowd greet you as you step onto the sawdust strewn floor of R.H.S. gym.

This was the scene of the W.A.A.C. CLASS sponsored County Fair on February 23. An annual all-school event, the County Fair is participated in by nearly all of Roosevelt's active clubs and organizations. The Friday night before the Fair the gym was a picture of gay confusion as the band, Ski Club, G.A.A., and scores of other club members worked to ready their various amusement concessions. The following morning a happy, shouting mob descended on the County Fair.

Result of this co-operative project? Fun for all and a little extra money for the treasury of each participating organization.

Along the Midway

Alice In Wonderland

The Senior Prom as usual was a huge success. The decoration committee more than outdid themselves when they brought Alice in Wonderland and all her friends to visit the R. H. S. gym.

Among those who visited were Tweedle Dum, Tweedle Dee, the jolly fat walrus and his pal the carpenter, the caterpillar sitting on his magical mushroom, the Cheshire cat and of course the Mad Hatter.

Alice also made her appearance and could be seen flitting around the room from place to place.

The refreshment stand was a romantic setting of real flowers with butterflies and other winged insects sipping nectar.

Covering the ceiling were streamers of deep red. The band stand was decorated in black background with silver stars. The back drop was of grey curtain upon which three odd shaped cards, standing about six feet high, were affixed.

All this color added a gala air to the couples dancing and blending with these colors.

Calendar of Events

SEPTEMBER - As school opened we. . .saw the Freshmen struggling, "bewitched-bothered-bewildered," through the halls of R.H.S.; met new teachers and old friends; held class elections with Edward Hinsman and Dick McCrea being chosen top officers of the Senior and Junior classes; R.S.U. got off to a fine start with Sally Vasher as president; we won our first two football games with Ecorse and Highland Park. The Rotary Exchange Program went into effect with Ursula Baier and Hanspeter Luley arriving from Germany to spend the school year at Roosevelt, and Jim Dalley, Roosevelt senior, leaving for Europe.

OCTOBER found us. . .making plans for our annual Homecoming events, after winning the game with Monroe, the evening was spent at the dance sponsored by the Senior Class at which Nancy Gee was crowned queen by the football co-captains Noel Bufe and Walter Le Clair. The queen's two lovely attendants were Betty Lou Lundstedt and Nancy Barkey.

Memories of NOVEMBER recall to mind the senior play, a thriller entitled TEN LITTLE INDIANS starring Joanne Courtney and George Richardson; the junior dance PIGSKIN PARADE and conclusion of an otherwise victorious football season by losing our Grand Rapids game played at Grand Rapids at which Jim Williams from R.H.S. reigned as king. Roosevelt voters put Nancy Gee behind the mayor's desk on Student Government Day and capable seniors were chosen to fill the annual positions with June Loeckner as Editor in Chief, Betty Lou Lundstedt, Joanne Patrick, and Mary Ann Shonk assisting.

We shall remember DECEMBER for spring semester R.S.U. elections with George Richardson becoming president; the Twirp Dance sponsored by the Ski Club; National Honor Society elections; the senior Christmas Cabaret Dance complete with floor show and reserved tables. A gala time was had New Year's Eve in the gym of "ole" R.H.S. by those who attended the Hi-Y Dance which featured a Grand March and of course noise makers at the stroke of twelve. When the R.S.U. erected the traditional Christmas tree everyone agreed it was the biggest and most beautiful yet.

JANUARY the first month of the new year brought. . .. a new semester with it. We bid farewell to January graduates who received the coveted diplomas preceded by Verna Church, valedictorian, Robert Galacz, salutatorian, and Joan Jagdozinski, 3rd high; welcomed more Freshmen to our hallowed halls; the senior prom, ALICE IN WONDERLAND, was said to be the best ever; Spotlights on Parade, an all school variety show sponsored jointly by the Band and Ski Club, was given, and the annual A Capella Choir concert was presented. Work was actually started on the year book and the annual room was turned into the "salt-mines."

In FEBRUARY we experienced. . .the annual all-school County Fair given by the W.A.A.C. Class; the Ski Club spent a week at Boyne Mountain, (Roosevelt was the only school in Michigan to be able to spend a whole week on such a trip). The girls of the Commercial Club donned their glad-rags for a trip to the Olympia, where they saw Barbara Ann Scott.

When MARCH blew out it left memories of. . .the junior play OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY, starring Joan Blizman and Jean Crutcher, which was enjoyed by all; also, with the passing of March, we saw the last of the "flu bug" which had scourged students and teachers alike. In keeping with the weather, the seniors had a rather "stormy" time over the choice of class colors and flower, but at last orchid and white were voted-in and white roses being the flower. The seniors were thinking of the future when they chose their motto:"He who looks ahead seldom falls behind."

APRIL and its showers brought visitors from Duluth in the form of the S.P.O.T.'s Class, exchanging with our W.A.A.C.'s; the J-Hop, "WE PREFER PARIS", was said to be extremely Continental, and was enjoyed by upper and lower classmen alike; the Thespian Play THE EVE OF ST. MARK with Joanne Courtney and Walt Wegst brought back the 1940's as they played the head roles. Several people breathed a sigh of relief as the annual was sent to press. Also in April the seniors chose and ordered their graduation announcements; Easter vacation made a pleasant, if rainy, break in the Spring semester. Julie Flynn, Marilyn Julien, and Barbara Haynes as valedictorian, salutatorian, and third highest proved that the women were definitely the brainier sex in the June graduating class of "52".

During MAY, the halls buzzed as seniors discussed their coming plans; then there was the exchanging of friendship pictures, the W.A.A.C. Class journeyed to Duluth, Minnesota, and were greatly educated by all their travels. Baseball season was in full swing for the Bears; many harried seniors were tearing their hair in the mad rush to get beloved term papers in on time. The annual senior Skip Day was spent riotuously May 29. The class sponsors were warned to be prepared for anything, but they let their hair down and had as much fun as the kids. (Almost, that is!)

JUNE with its hot dreamy days and the bustle of graduation made the seniors reminiscent of the wonderful times had at Roosevelt during the past four years. Exams were a rude awakening from those pleasant dreams. Then suddenly everyone was passing out name cards and being measured for caps and gowns, and the annuals arrived! It didn't seem possible when out on the athletic field the choir was singing "Promise Me That We Will Still Be Sweethearts After Graduation Day" and the band was finally playing "Pomp and Circumstance." Everything seemed solemn and proud and a little sad. But not until after they had received their diplomas with one hand, tossed their tassels to the left with the other, and shook hands with Mr. Egdorf did the seniors realize that commencement means "The Beginning."

The traditions of our American cultu dictate that with your High School graduation you assume, as individuals, new and greater responsibilities as citizens of this great democracy.
In the years that lie ahead we hope and pray that you and your classmates assume your duties while exercising your rights with dignity as citizens of our great country. Perhaps the highest honor society could ever bestow upon you would be the title of a good citizen in its fullest meaning.

Superintendent

It is time to say farewell to our friends.
For four years we have been conscious of one another. We have met daily in the halls, in the classroom, in our class activities. There is an aura of warmth in the meeting of friends-- in the daily contacts and associations. There are also the inevitable conflicts and clashes of personalities. It is the way of any typical family. We grow suspicious of too nice people.
But, now, as the time comes when the sweet sorrow of parting must manifest itself, we find that our nostalgic memories dwell only on our happier moments. That is as it should be, and as we, your sponsors, proudly watch you, diploma in hand, step off the platform into a greater future, we feel that the World cannot help but be a nicer place, with the addition to it of so many fine young people.

Class Sponsors

Upon approaching graduation, we seniors have a mixed feeling of joy and regret. The joy of walking across the platform and receiving our diplomas and then starting out on the road to the future which we hope will lead only to success. The regret is leaving the friendships we have made during the past four years and of being forced to give up many activities which have brought us happiness.
We also regret losing contact with those teachers who have made an indelible impression upon us.
To reenact the memories of the many activities of the last four years, which seem to us so important, we have created this annual. From the first formation of the idea for the book to its completion, many hours of labor were required. The difficulties at times seemed insurmountable. Yet, these difficulties provided experiences which should be beneficial as we take up our life's work. We hope that the pages of this yearbook will provide you with many moments of happiness in the future and will serve to recall to your mind with increasing frequency
the happy times we had at Roosevelt High.
And as we write FINIS on this page, we will ever remember the joys and the difficulties of its production.
It is my sincere hope that it may be a fitting monument to the general good work of the class.

Editor in Chief of the Annual

Years ago during the depression the high school annual had to be abandoned because of our inability to finance it. The annual was soon succeeded by a "Memory Issue" of the Wy News. When economic conditions improved, it became possible to resume publication of the Wy Hi Annual. Each class aims to make its annual an improved production, both in appearance and content.
But its contribution does not lie in the beauty of the cover or cost of the issue. It remains in effect a "Memory Issue," a reminder for the years ahead of the many activities, the fine spirit of co-operation, and, above all, the many friends and fine comradeship which four years of high school membership made possible.
I hope that the friendships and memories that this book helps preserve will become more precious as the years succeed one another.

Principal

"I shot an arrow into the air
It fell to earth, I knew not where . . . . ."

With the coming of another graduation, more than 200 arrows (members of the June graduating class) will be figuratively shot into the air. They have been fashioned during the four years of high school.
What this fashioning process has been will determine to a large extent the direction the arrow takes and where it will drop. Some will fall on fertile soil; others will fall on barren territory. From the former will come the leadership that will promote and direct progress and make of the world a better place to live.
The four years of your high school have been happy ones. You have made many wonderful friendships, some of which will last throughout your lifetime. During your time spent in Roosevelt you have been very proud of her and she, likewise, of you.
As you take with you the memories of your joys and disappointments as students, you will go into still larger fields where joys are deeper and disappointments may become tragedies.
And now as you are about to graduate, keep well cultivated that spirit which binds you to Roosevelt.
Remember the lessons you learned here and so live you life that it will be a glowing tribute to the school and th community.

The senior class wishes to express, with d appreciation, their thanks to the following their fine co-operation in helping to make annual the best ever: Wayne Yanz, Mar Pulver, and Joseph Sparks.
